

Camera Surveillance

We have camera surveillance of certain areas of the hotel where people travel. The reason for surveillance is to prevent and investigate criminal actions and minimise the impacts of any accidents. The cameras are there for the safety and security of our guests and staff, and are only used for these purposes.

When deciding on introducing camera surveillance, we have reached the conclusion that prevention of crime, investigation of criminal actions, along with the safety of the staff and guests weigh heavier than individual rights and freedoms according to the data protection regulation (Article 6 (1) (f)).

All data collected is confidential and will only be made available to the police where there is a report under investigation. All equipment and data is protected by a physical and digital wall, and only a small number of people have access to the material. Data is stored maximum 30 days according to the storage minimisation principle.
